

IN THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF PUERTO RICO

IN RE:

ADMINISTRATIVE PRACTICES

ORDER NO. 88-01

FILED & ENTERED

MAY 5 - 1988

CLERK

U. S. BANKRUPTCY COURT
SAN JUAN, PUERTO RICO

ORDER

The practice of submitting to the bankruptcy judges courtesy copies of documents and pleadings filed with the Clerk has become a burden. Many of the documents are of a routine nature or a belated compliance with a deadline. The overall effect is that the administration of cases is delayed. In view of the foregoing, it is now

ORDERED that the practice of submitting courtesy copies to the judges' chambers ceases immediately; and it is further

ORDERED that any matter which the movant certifies in writing to require emergency and expedited management be brought to the attention of the Clerk or the person that she may designate.

SO ORDERED.

San Juan, Puerto Rico, this 5th day of May, 1988.
